

Dear Tim,

I wonder if you, or any of your contacts, remember a song and dance troupe visiting your school in July 1970. They performed for you all on 13th July, just 11 days before the school closed and was amalgamated with two other schools in September 1970.

My Dad led the song and dance troupe, called The Langdonians, and I was in attendance as an 8 year old!

I'd also love to find out about the acting headmistress at the Priory Girls school, Katherine Richards.

I'm researching this for a spoken word show that I am writing for the Edinburgh Fringe next year.

I hope to hear from you.

Kind regards,

Eileen Mahony
